

MDP: Facing the Tiger-Conflict Resolution in Organizations conducted on 18th December 2015

Conflicts are inevitable phase of life in any organization. There is a growing perception that conflicts create only disturbances in the organization and are destructive. However in the real sense of understanding conflict we get to know that they are often needed as they help to raise and address problems, energizes work on the most important issues, help people be real and motivate them and makes people learn how to recognize and benefit from the differences.

This 1 day MDP was jointly conducted by Dr. G. Vijayaragavan, Director, PIMSR and Mr. C. Subramanian, President HR, Siyaram Group. The program was attended by Senior HR managers, Entrepreneurs and Professors. Dimensions of conflicts, conflict management strategies and conflict management styles were major topics discussed. The participants got immensely benefited from experiences sharing, case studies, role plays and exercises.
